TUES BAY, A PRIT S, 1888.

The last number of that agrarian print, jestingly called "The Democrat," gives evidence that its conductors, although destitute of those honorable feelings and principles, which deter men from the commission of mean and debasing denth of derwevity, from which reform is hope than, because of the total abandonment of all shame and contrition, under detection and exposure Aplea of "not guilty" is at length enter ed to the charge against that paper of having published a wilful and mulicious fulsehood, an ac onestion upon which the tory editors had been so long aroughed that the public were justified in rendering upon their ait dust a verdict of conviction. But the manner in which the plea is now put in, shows that it is the "not guilty" or the teembling culprit at the bar, who hopes to escape exerction upon some pality quibble of the law, at the same time that he labors under the torturing conclousness that every particle of and confirm the accusation, and give the he to his iniversité dehial.

We are gorry to feel ourselves called upon to administer another chastisement to these graceless and hardened miscreants, for we are aware, that the expenditure of pur link upon such "amall game," is anything but acceptable to our readers, and it is no pleasing occupation to us to inflict pain upon any creature, however low vacan, grovelling, contemptible and utterly insignificant it may be But a sense of duty impels us to the task, and if our readers will bear with ne for once, we promise that we will not again impose upon their patience -- - - ---In the editorial columns of the "Democrat" of the 8th of March last, appeared a charge a gainst us of having falsely standered the collectors at Castine and Frenchman a Bay, by declaring that they had paid—the bounties of the fishermen in their districts, with the bills of the Commonwealth Bank This charge was ushered forth in the usual style of the agraman press. In our paper of the following day, we promptly met the charge, and exposed the vila and malicious FALSEHOOD, of the accusers The allegation against the authors of the charge up on us, of having uttered that which they might haze known, and which they doubtless did know to be raise was unbeeded by them, until the appearance of the last number of their paper, at which time, a notice was extorted, by a most emphati- resteration of the charge, upon our

This notice is such an one as might reasonably have been auticipated from such a source. In the hope that sufficient time had elapsed since the charge of falschood was first made by us, to obliterate the true issue from the mind of the public they resort to an evasion. as meet and pultry, as their original accusation was been, false and scandalous; and in the expectation of thereby more effectually concealing the weakness of their evasion, they interlard their language with a string of epithets applied to ther accusers, which, though intended to be rastly witty and severe, are yet so fut and stuand foolish personalities, or additional falsehoods. "It is for the public to judge between representations of the "Demociat" in the course of his spitch in the Sepate at Friday ! at, against the Sub Treasury Bill " Judge White selected in a very, felicitious manner to the application or Webster made on Thursday, of a statute of the State of Frank. in, or hast Tennessee, for the support of its civil list. He wie gled that his 8 ste nach econs in, on that occasion, as a peace spaker, and that the recital of this act had sent the members of the senate home in such good humour, and none in greater cordiality, to all appearances, than the two Senators who had been engaged in so vigorous an encounter during the day, (Messrs Calhoun and Webster)

He regretted however, that Mr Webster had was directly applicable to the Sub Treasury system, and which he believed tir W would have Raccouns were plentiful in East Tennessie, but the te was another er animal stur more abundant and prolific -the Opposeum Now what think you do these honest Sub-Treasurers of the Sovereign State of Franklin take into their heads? They receive from the good people the best Racoon skins Do they transfer them to the State Treasury wherewith to pay the members and officers of the Assembly, as in duty bound? Oh no! Nothing of the kind. They cunningly cut off, the tails of the riconn skins sell the skins to the hatters for good splid money sew the tails to the oppossions, and pass them off to the eyes of the Treasurer, the duil, thick headed Treasuter the Levi Woodbury of Franklin as genuthe coun whine !

Judge White related this story admirably, and almost unexunguishable laughter shook all sides of the Senate

It furnished an admirable illustration of the workings of the Sub Treasury system, with its odious feature of an exclusively hard money currency. How long would u.b., could that system go into operation before we should find Sub-Treasurers, substituting counterfeit coin for suited gold and silver

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BAL.
Dr Jacob Myera

Patrati of a letter from Dr. Jacob Myers.
The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon calebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many nostroms, host of which are impositions upon a credulous public, but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot belp but give my approbation thereto. A counterfeit preparation has been offered here by a travelling agant of Coastock, N. Y , and there is also another a liefe vended here that is strongly suspected to be sperious.
